R-1-S, Suburban Residential District

Section 12.01 Statement of Purpose

The intent of the Suburban Residential District is to provide areas of the Township for the construction and continued use of single family detached dwellings within safe, stable neighborhoods. Generally, it is intended that R-1-S zoned development occur adjacent to collector or arterial roads. In certain R-1S neighborhoods included with the June 12, 2000 Agreement for Conditional Transfer of Property pursuant to 1984 PA 425, single-family development may be facilitated by the future availability of sanitary sewer service.

It is further the intent of this District to permit a limited range of residentially-related uses, and to prohibit multiple family, office, business, commercial, industrial and other uses that would interfere with the quality of residential life in this district.

It is intended that developments in this district be designed to preserve significant natural features and promote public health, safety, and welfare. Preservation of open space, protection of flood prone areas, protection of wetlands, woodlands, and groundwater recharge areas, and preservation of other natural features is encouraged, consistent with state law.
